Who we are

We are a full-service creative production company, specializing in the fashion, beauty, lifestyle, entertainment and luxury market.

Founded in 2001, by Edward Brachfeld, we are a welcoming and well-informed team, with extensive networks, and a long history of managing projects of all scales and scope.

Our approach is personal, flexible, conscientious and precise. We are translators, turning the subtleties of creative talent into concrete content. Throughout our history, we have continuously collaborated with some of the most exciting artists, and on some of the most complex projects of our generation.
